

Using Commas (in lists)

Punctuation marks help us to make sense of what we are reading.

- . A full stop tells us to stop. We have come to the end of a sentence.
- ? A question mark tells us that a question is being asked.
- , A comma tells us to pause. It is used to separate items in a list.

Practice

Copy these sentences. Put in the missing commas.

1. At the zoo we saw penguins emus ostriches lions and elephants.
2. In my bag I have a book a pencil a ruler an apple and some crisps.
3. Ali had a cat a dog two goldfish a budgie and a gerbil.
4. Ruth has a round face black hair brown eyes a small nose and freckles.