

UNIT 6

Adverbs (of manner, time and place)

An adverb is a word which gives more meaning to a verb.

The magician waved his wand mysteriously.

Next, a puff of smoke appeared.

He pulled out a rabbit.

An adverb of manner tells us how something happened.

An adverb of time tells us when something happened.

An adverb of place tells us where something happened.

Practice

- Copy the sentences. Underline the verb in each one.
 - The snow fell thickly.
 - Listen carefully.
 - It rained heavily on the tent.
 - I hit the table angrily with my fist.
 - Sara wrote the letter neatly.
 - A tear slowly trickled down my cheek.
 - The cat stretched lazily.
 - The dog ate his dinner greedily.
 - Tom threw the ball accurately.
 - Slowly the giant stretched his arms and legs.
- Now circle the adverb of manner in each sentence.
- Make up some sentences of your own. Include these adverbs of time and place in them.

Adverbs of time
now tomorrow first always after

Adverbs of place
down everywhere in outside left

4. pencil, peppermint, pencil, pencil, pencil, pencil
5. oyster, mussel, octopus, limpet, whelk.

Making sure

Draw a chart like this. Write each adverb from the box in the correct column.

Adverbs of manner (how?)	Adverbs of time (when?)	Adverbs of place (where?)

later	quickly	gently	often	yesterday	in
suspiciously	tidily	out	inside	afterwards	now
bravely	everywhere	sweetly	next	then	here
there	deeply	up	finally	always	carefully

Practise your punctuation

1. Punctuate this passage correctly.

yesterday I saw two birds busily building their nest they flew backwards and forwards up and down and in and out first they found some twigs next they carefully wove them into a nest they tirelessly pulled and tugged it into shape this wasnt all they did finally they carefully lined it with moss soon the female bird will lay her eggs

2. Now underline each adverb.

Above each adverb:

- write m if it is an adverb of manner
- write t if it is an adverb of time
- write p if it is an adverb of place
