

1. She accused the student of making excuses for not having his work done.
2. He refused to refuel the time machine in case their actions ruined the future.
3. The people were queuing to get into the unique, popular and unusual attraction.
4. It was usual for her to book beauty treatments.
5. The manager offered his congratulations to the Castle United players for their continuing success.