

Homonyms

Homonyms are words which sound the same and have the same spelling but have different meanings, for example:

- The brown bear climbed the tree.
- Sandra could hardly bear the pain.

bark	blow	chest	fair	kind
light	match	ring	shed	watch

Copy out each pair of sentences onto a page and use the words in the word box above to fill the spaces in the sentences. The same word must be used for each pair of sentences.

1. The lawn mower is kept in the garden _____.
Many trees _____ their leaves in the autumn.
2. The _____ lady donated £20 to the animal charity.
This is a different _____ of toffee to the one I usually buy.
3. We hear the school bell _____ every afternoon at three o'clock.
The wedding _____ was made of solid gold.
4. The oak tree has a rough _____.
The dog began to _____ when the children teased him.
5. Much damage is done when high winds _____.
A _____ to the head knocked the boxer out.
6. Myley has very _____ hair.
There were many amusements at the _____.
7. My new _____ displays the time and the date.
We did not _____ television last night.
8. The huge parcel was actually as _____ as a feather.
In winter we _____ the fire every evening.
9. There was a large crowd at yesterday's football _____.
Mum struck a _____ to light the birthday candles.
10. James has a sore _____ because he is coughing so much.
Dad's tools are kept in a wooden _____ in the garage.