

Winter

Read the sentences and fill in the gaps with the correct words from the word bank below.

Winter is one of the _____ seasons.

It comes after autumn.

Winter comes before _____.

It is _____ in the winter.

Some animals, like bears and bees, _____ in the winter.

Some birds _____ away to warmer places.

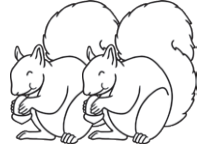

Some animals, like _____, store _____.

Some people catch colds in the winter.

Christmas and _____ are in the winter.

Word Bank

 spring	 fly	 four	 New Year
 food	 squirrels	 hibernate	 cold

Winter Answers

Winter is one of the four seasons.

It comes after autumn.

Winter comes before spring.

It is cold in the winter.

Some animals, like bears and bees, hibernate in the winter.

Some birds fly away to warmer places.

Some animals, like squirrels, store food.

Some people catch colds in the winter.

Christmas and New Year are in the winter.

Word Bank

 spring	 fly	 four	 New Year
 food	 squirrels	 hibernate	 cold

Winter

Read the sentences and fill in the gaps with the correct words from the word bank below.

Word Bank

 animals	 December	 white	 ill
 darkness	 headache	 four	 New Year
 coldest	 squirrels	 hail	 geese

Winter is one of the _____ seasons. It is the season that comes after autumn. It begins in December and finishes in February. This is when we have the _____ weather; we might have sleet, _____ and snow. We have the longest nights, which means more _____, shorter days and the least amount of daylight.

What happens to the animals in winter?

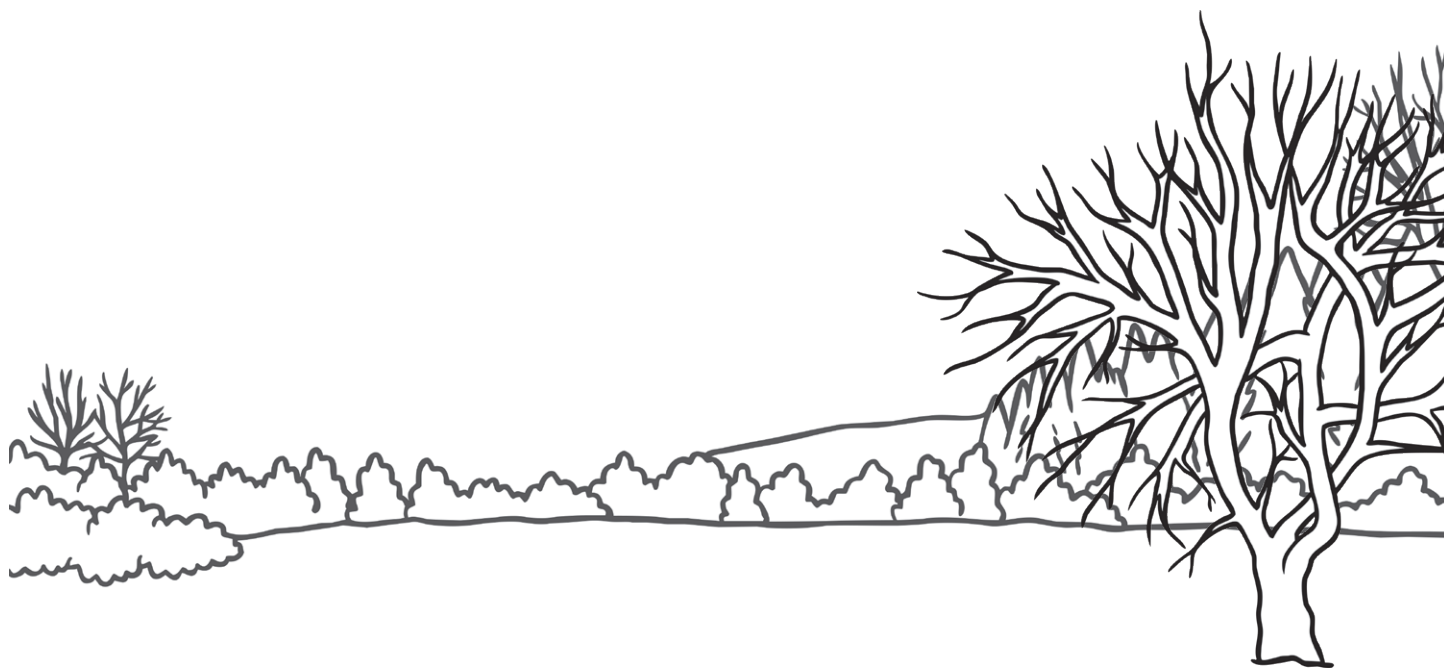

Many animals hibernate during the autumn and winter, like bears, bees, frogs and some bats. Some animals migrate and fly to somewhere warmer for the winter, like _____. Other _____ store food for the winter, like _____. There are also some animals who change or do other things to keep themselves safe and warm. A mountain hare turns _____ during the winter to blend in with the snow.

What happens to our health in winter?

During the winter, many people get _____ with colds and the flu. They may have a runny nose, a cough or a headache.

Which celebrations happen in winter?

Christmas Day is on 25th _____ and was originally celebrated by Christians. _____ is on 1st January and many people also join in with the Chinese New Year festival in either January or February.

Winter Answers

Winter is one of the four seasons, it is the season that comes after autumn. It begins in December and finishes in February. This is when we have the coldest weather; we might have sleet, hail and snow. We have the longest nights, which means more darkness, shorter days and the least amount of daylight.

What happens to the animals in winter?

Many animals hibernate during the autumn and winter, like bears, bees, frogs and some bats. Some animals migrate and fly to somewhere warmer for the winter, like geese. Other animals store food for the winter, like squirrels. There are also some animals who change or do other things to keep themselves safe and warm. A mountain hare turns white during the winter to blend in with the snow.

What happens to our health in winter?

During the winter, many people get ill with colds and the flu. They may have a runny nose, a cough or a headache.

Which celebrations happen in winter?

Christmas Day is on 25th December and was originally celebrated by Christians. New Year is on 1st January and many people also join in with the Chinese New Year festival in either January or February.

Winter

Read the sentences and fill in the gaps with the correct words from the word bank below.

Word Bank

warmer	colds	camouflage	January
suffer	weather	seasons	Christmas
daylight	shorter	Christians	migrate
hail	adapt	hibernate	around

Winter is one of the four _____. It is the season that comes after autumn. It begins in December and finishes in February. This is when we have the coldest _____; we might have sleet, _____ and snow. Winter is when we experience the longest nights, which means more darkness, _____ days and the least amount of _____.

What happens to the animals in winter?

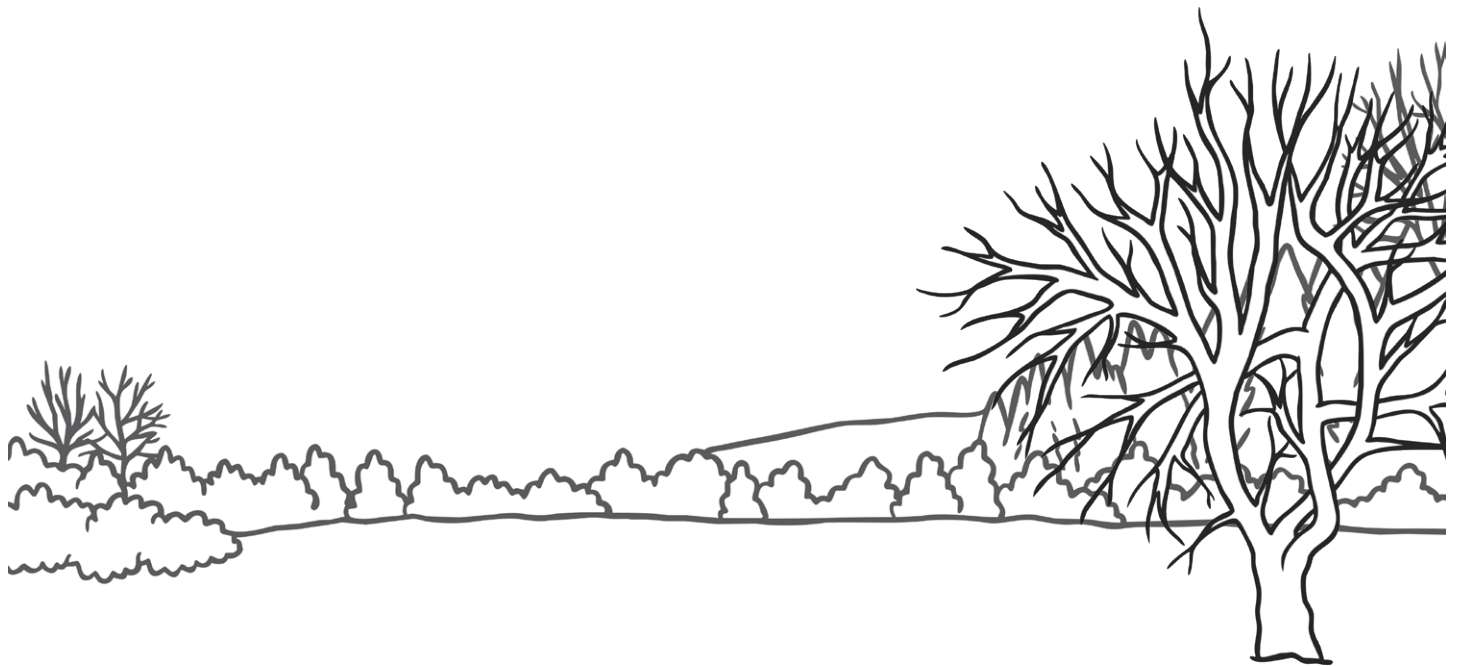

Many animals _____ during the autumn and winter, e.g. bears, bees, hedgehogs, frogs, snakes and some types of bats. Some animals _____ to somewhere _____ for the winter, like geese. Other animals store food for the winter, so they have enough to eat when there is less food _____. Badgers, skunks and squirrels do this. There are also some animals who _____ when it is cold. They do this by changing the way they look. They can grow new, thicker, warmer coats to keep them warm. A mountain hare turns white during the winter to _____ in the snow.

What happens to our health in winter?

During the winter, it is common for people to suffer from _____ and the flu. Symptoms that some people _____ from can include a runny nose, a cough or a headache.

Which celebrations happen in winter?

Christmas is an exciting time of celebration for many people. _____ Day is on 25th December and is a religious and cultural event, originally celebrated by _____. New Year is on 1st _____ and many people also join in with the Chinese New Year festival in either January or February every year.

Winter Answers

Winter is one of the four seasons. It is the season that comes after autumn. It begins in December and finishes in February. This is when we have the coldest weather; we might have sleet, hail and snow. Winter is when we experience the longest nights, which means more darkness, shorter days and the least amount of daylight.

What happens to the animals in winter?

Many animals hibernate during the autumn and winter, e.g. bears, bees, hedgehogs, frogs, snakes and some types of bats. Some animals migrate to somewhere warmer for the winter, like geese. Other animals store food for the winter, so they have enough to eat when there is less food around. Badgers, skunks and squirrels do this. There are also some animals who adapt when it is cold, they do this by changing the way they look. They can grow new, thicker, warmer coats to keep them warm. A mountain hare turns white during the winter to camouflage in the snow.

What happens to our health in winter?

During the winter, it is common for people to suffer from colds and the flu. Symptoms that some people suffer from can include a runny nose, a cough or a headache.

Which celebrations happen in winter?

Christmas is an exciting time of celebration for many people. Christmas Day is on 25th December and is a religious and cultural event, originally celebrated by Christians. New Year is on 1st January and many people also join in with the Chinese New Year festival in either January or February every year.